

St. James Dave Edward
and the Dragon

By James

Far, far away in a distant galaxy there
lived a wicked, mean,
horrible, terrible, evil
and fire breathing
dragon

He could get rid of a country, with his mighty head.

He could fly faster than a rocket, with a swipe off his measles wings and

he could burn down
a forest, with his

zine. his teeth and his claws are sharper

Swords:

A few days later
the dragon smashed Arica to pieces. The terrified king sent nineteen knights to destroy the evil dragon. However the knights were not brave enough to kill it and so the king sent his bravest

Knight : Sir James Oavo Edward.

The next morning

Sir James Darn Edward

reached the evil dragon's cave. The king's really brave knight went into the cave and saw the dragon. Then the fight began. With a charge

the fearless knight charged at the dragon but before he could the dragon blew fire. Sir James Dave Edward dodged it then charged again. The knight did it! He killed the dragon.

Finally the victorious
knight went to the castle.
The king said he could marry the princess so he married her. The dragon was never seen again. They all lived happily ever after.

Once there was a dragon who smashed a girl
what do you think the king and his knights will do?
