Millions and
millions of
years ago in
the hills
there lived
a horrifying
dinosaur.

Handwritten text, possibly a title or header, in a cursive script. The text is faint and difficult to decipher but appears to contain several words.

He could run

faster than

a cheetah and

he could roar

louder than

a lion. He could smash

a tree with a flick of his mighty tail.

Then one day
the fierce
dinosaur knocked
down Big Ben!
King Edward
decided the strong
beast needed
to be destroyed
before he

crushed all the buildings

A long came a heroic dragon.

He swooped
down and
smashed the
dinosaur in half!

Everyone cheered.

Soon afterwards
they had
dinosaurs ice
cream and
everyone in London lived
happily ever after.

Once there
was a
horrifying dinosaur. Will
he be defeated?
