The Evil Draft
Thomas

A thousand

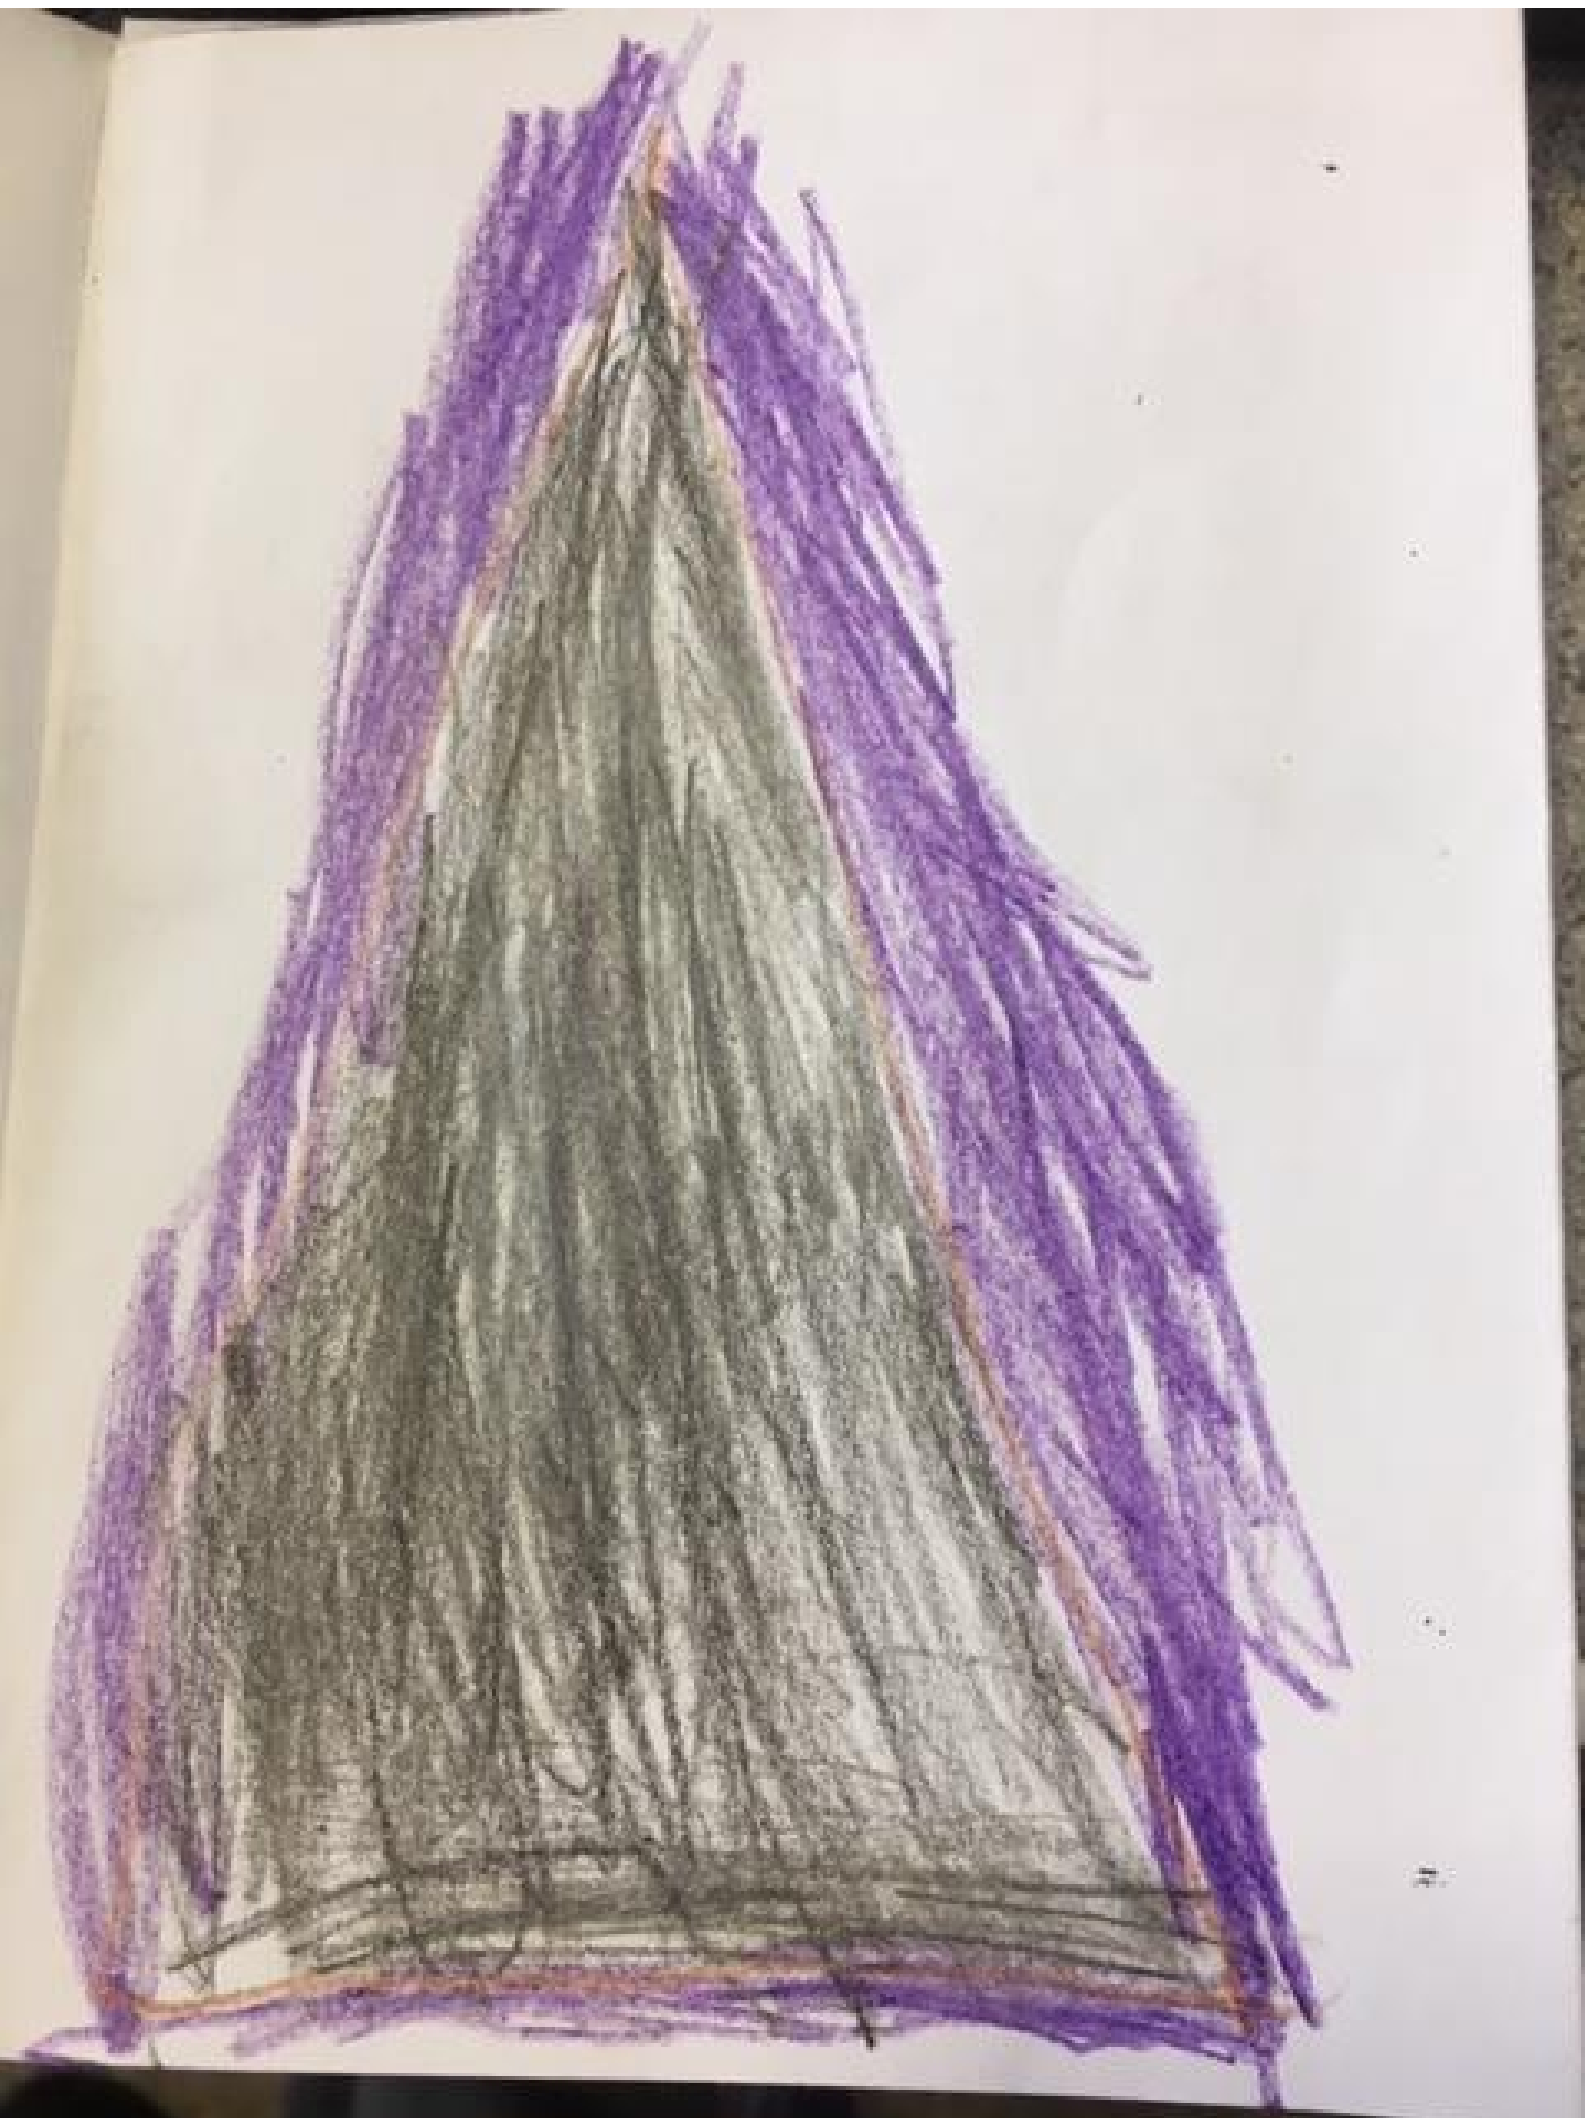

years ago

there was a dragon in a dark

cave.

The mighty

dragon could

roar louder

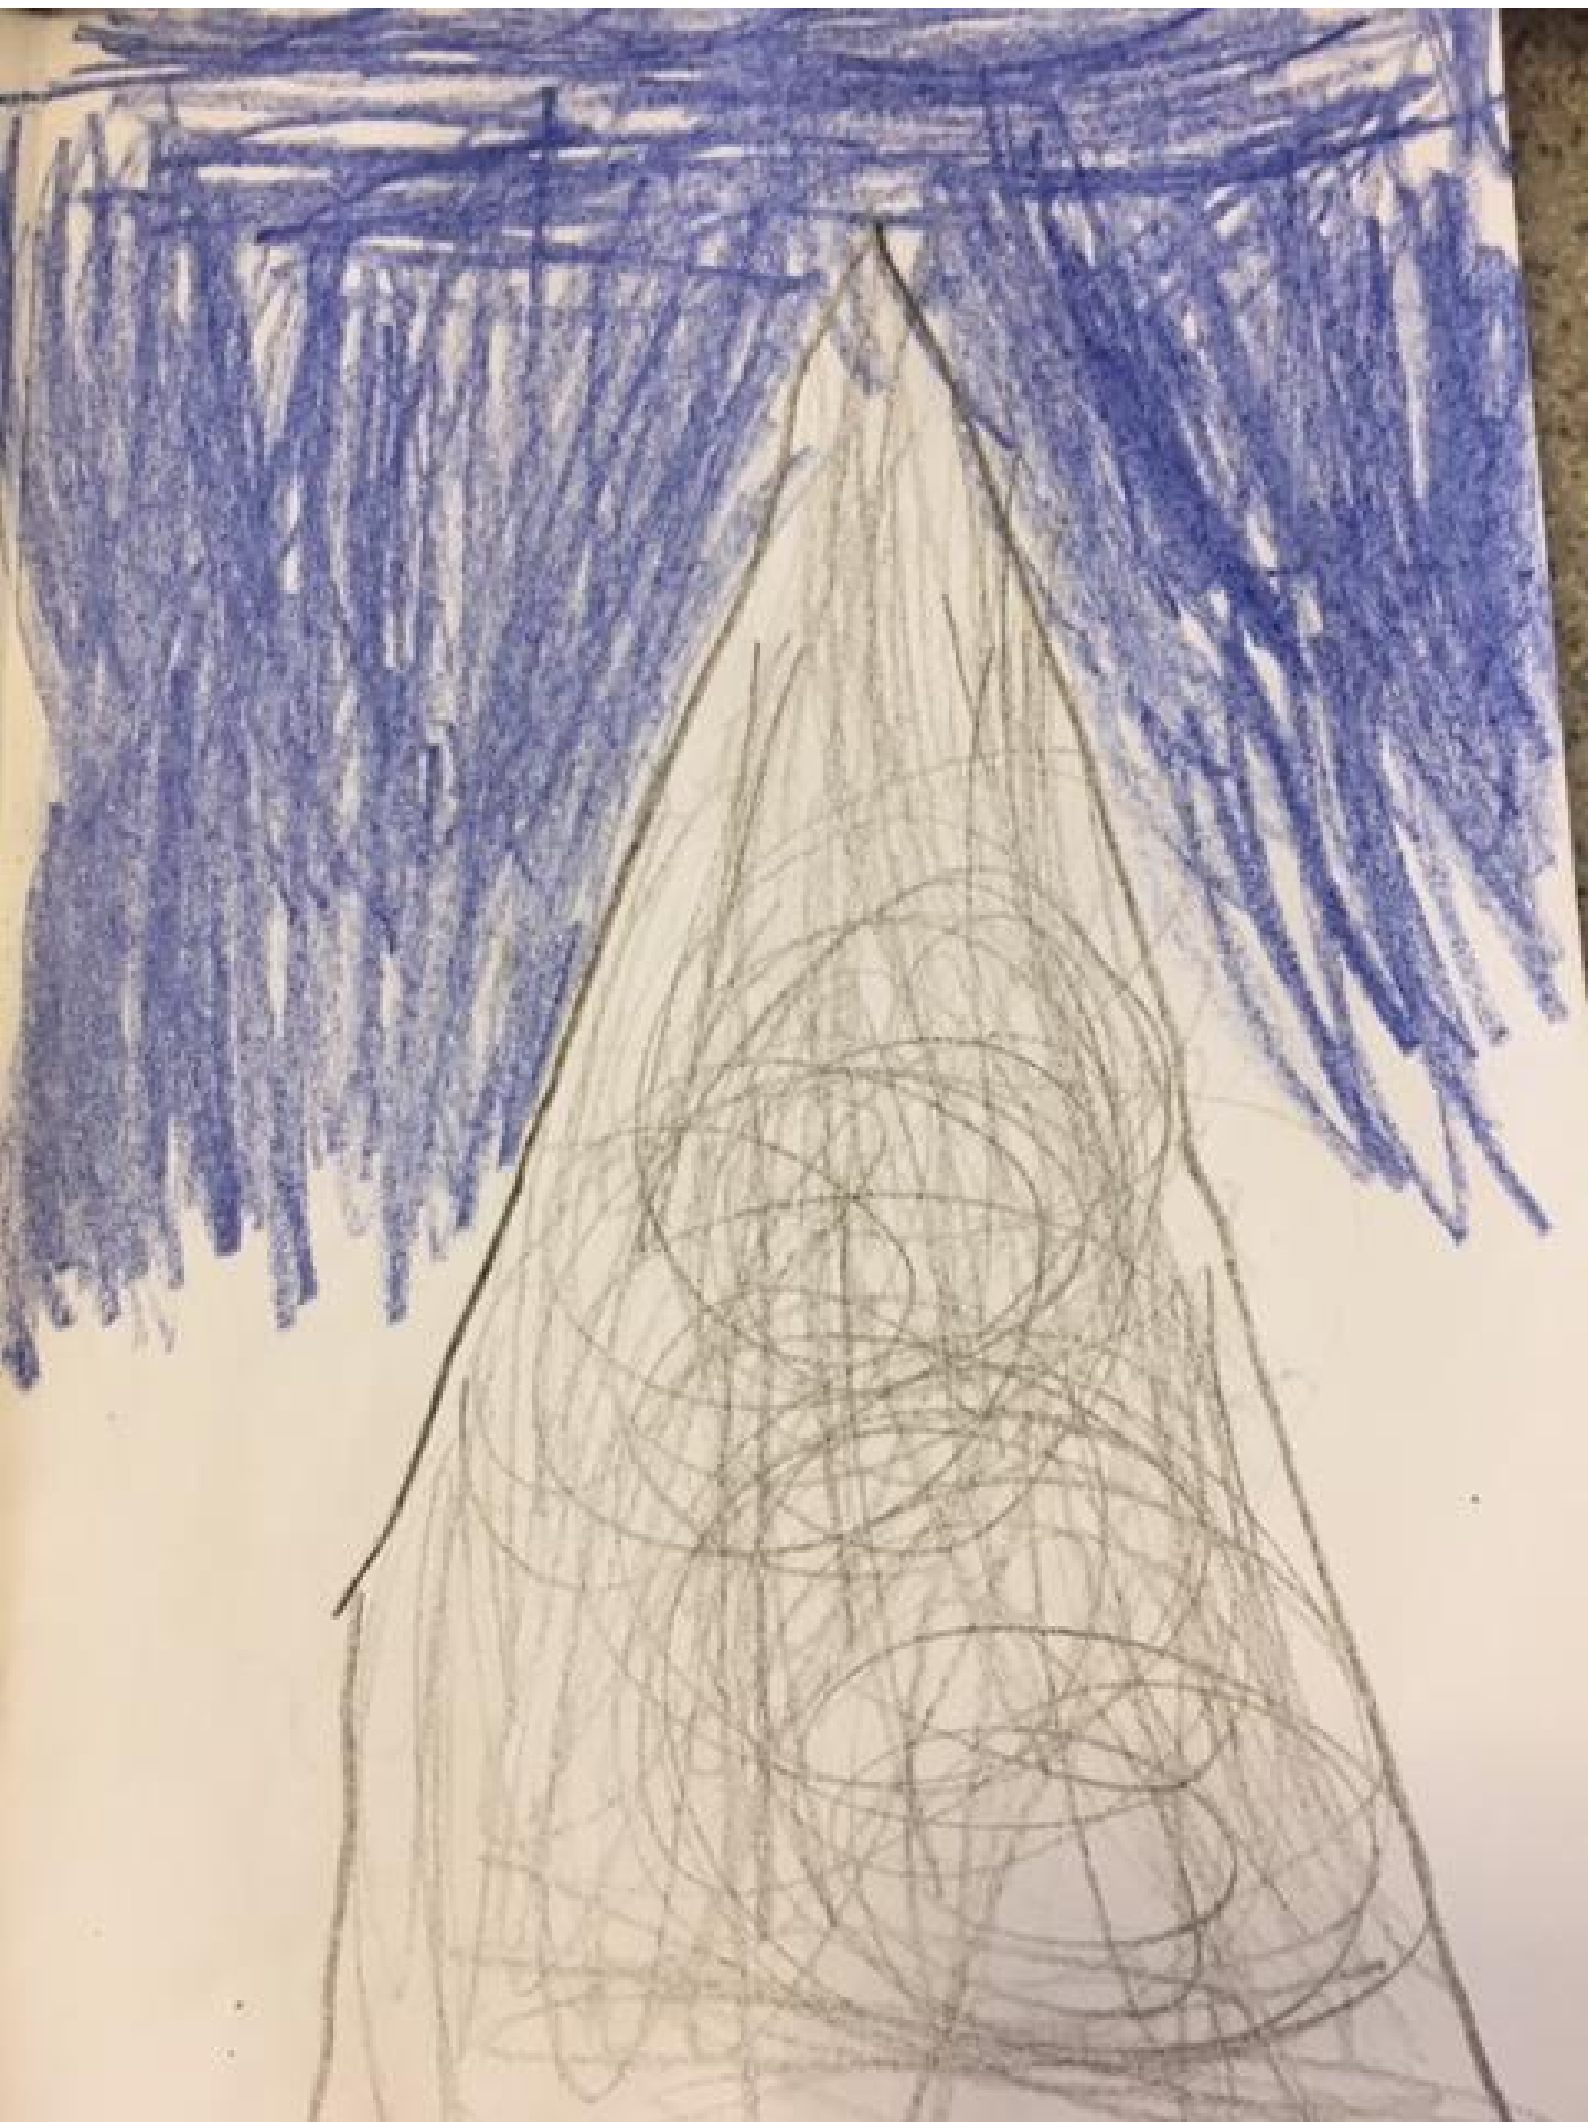

than a rat.

He <sup>could</sup> blow

down a

<sup>building</sup> building with his fire.

It was not long before

the wicked dragon

had burned down

a thousand

buildings. The king decided

that the evil

dragon had to be stopped because
there were only
two houses left!

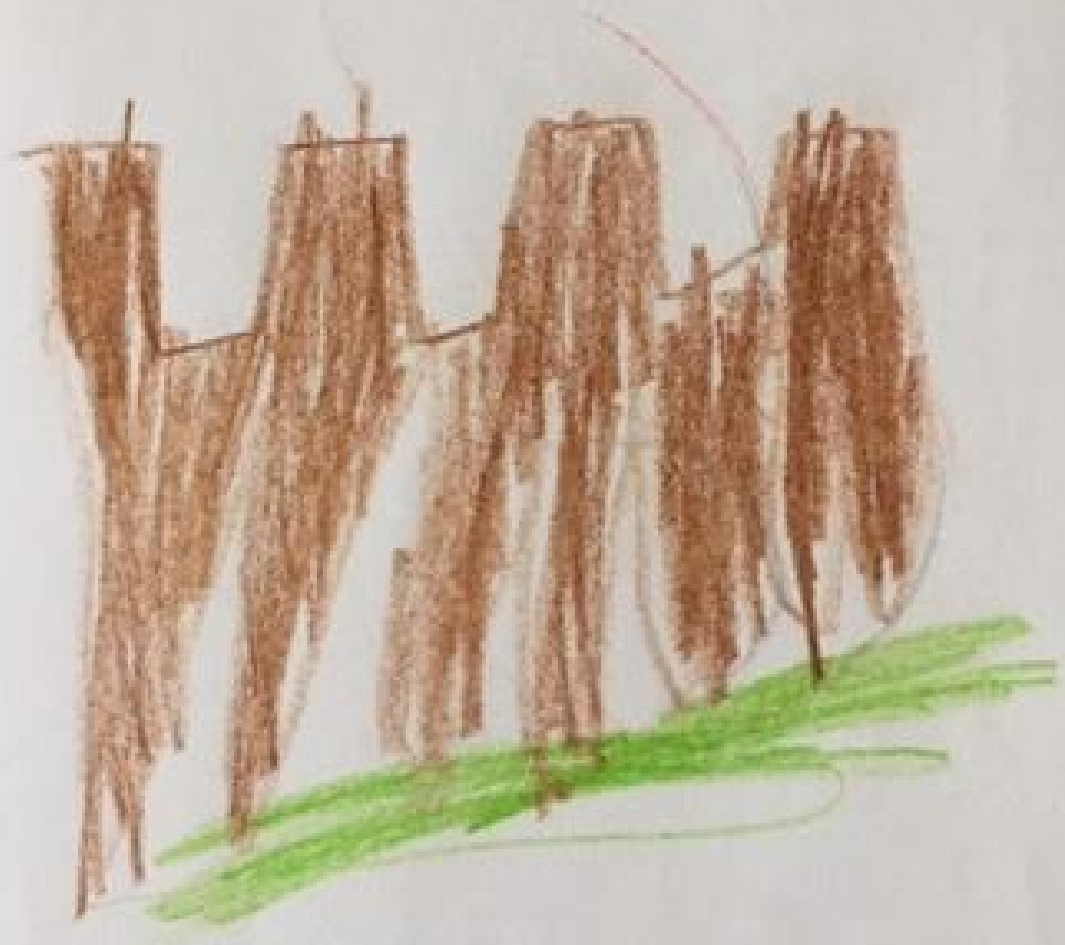

The king
sent a
hundred
knights
and they fought the
dragon and
then the
dragon lost
lost it was

dead.

Everything

was but

even better than and

ever gone in the world

lived

happily ever
after.
